Call to Artists: Summer + Fall 2016 Project Winter 2017 Exhibition
Calling Englewood… will be an exhibition of art work in January 2017, created through the summer and fall 2016 by participating artists. Like the game of Telephone, the first artist in each thread will create an artwork based on a photograph provided by EAC. The next artist will create an artwork inspired only by the preceding artwork in the series. Each subsequent participant will create an art work inspired only by the preceding art work. The artwork will be hung in sequence in the exhibition. Space is limited.

For more information, stop by EAC or visit the website. The photos will be released to the first artist for the series on May 31, so sign up early!
