

Ringling College Galleries Encounters with Artists

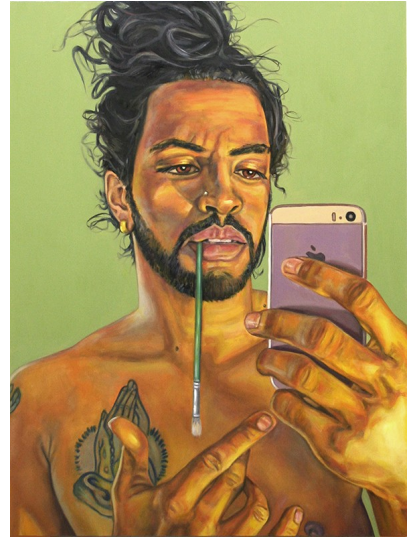

*Your Chance to Meet:
Three Artists, the Curator of Observation-Reference-Gesture and the Founder of the Lemur Conservation Foundation
We have organized these events to enhance your experience of the exhibition:
Observation-Reference-Gesture that runs
October 14 through December 2, 2016
at Willis Smith Gallery*

Tuesday, October 25 - Curator's Talk

5:30pm – 6:15pm

Mark Ormond, Exhibition Curator

Grace Graupe-Pillard
Dillon: Portrait of the artist as a Young Man, 2016
Courtesy of the artist and Cheim & Read Gallery, NY

Wednesday, October 26 – Portrait of a Lemur

11:30am – 12:15pm

Dustin Juengel, Artist

Penelope Bodry-Sanders, Founder & former ED, Lemur Conservation Foundation

The fleeting moment of a photograph is decelerated through a laborious and meticulous process, recreating the image in the much slower medium/experience of paint. Dustin Juengel

Dustin Juengel, Untitled (Lemur), 2015
Courtesy of the artist and the Lemur Conservation Foundation, Myakka City, FL

Wednesday, November 2 – Curator's Talk

11:30am – 12:15pm

Mark Ormond, Exhibition Curator

Ester Curini, I am Essential, 2015
Courtesy of the artist and Bernarducci Meisel Gallery, NY

Wednesday, November 9 – Painting Onsite

11:30am – 12:15pm

Bruce Marsh, Artist

Bruce Marsh

St. Petersburg View, July, 2014.

Courtesy of the artist & Allyn Gallup
Contemporary Art, Sarasota, FL

My painting, in all its incarnations, has always involved closely observed expanses of landscape, and over the past few years has been increasingly involved with painting onsite, and all the inherent problems and opportunities of working directly. Bruce Marsh

Tuesday, November 15 - The Perceptual Painter

5:30pm – 6:15pm

Lucy Barber, Artist

The sensation of seeing and experiencing the moment whether embraced by location or touched by object renders an essential perspective that must travel to the canvas. Lucy Barber

Lucy Barber. Rainstorm over Sarasota Bay, 2016.
Courtesy Lucy Barber.

Tuesday, November 29 - Curator's Talk

5:30pm – 6:15pm

Mark Ormond, Exhibition Curator

Michelle Doll, Family, 2014
Courtesy of the artist & Lyons Wier Gallery, NY

Wednesday, November 30 – Curator's Talk

11:30am – 12:15pm

Mark Ormond, Exhibition Curator

Willis Smith Gallery is located in the Larry R. Thompson Academic Center at 2363 Old Bradenton Rd. on the Ringling College campus.

For more Information:

Phone: 941.359.7563

galleries@ringling.edu

www.ringling.edu/galleries

GALLERY HOURS: Monday–Saturday 10-4pm, Tuesdays 10-7pm