

Designing with Heart: Jason Champion on Inclusivity, Creativity and Community

EPISODE 4: A CONVERSATION WITH JASON CHAMPION

EPISODE SUMMARY

This episode features a conversation with Jason Champion, President of Project Pride SRQ, discussing various topics related to inclusivity, creativity and community.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon listening, you will be able to:

- Understand how inclusive design practices can support diverse identities in various environments.
- Recognize the importance of representation and understand how diverse voices contribute to a more inclusive society.
- Recognize the contributions of Project Pride SRQ for the LGBTQ + community, understanding their role in fostering diversity and inclusion.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What role does community engagement play in promoting inclusivity, and how can we actively encourage diverse voices in our initiatives?
- In what ways can creatives, designers and artists use their platforms to advocate for marginalized communities and drive social change?
- What challenges do individuals face when striving for inclusivity in their communities, and how can we work together to overcome these barriers?

---

ringling.edu/risingtogether
diversity@ringling.edu

Stay connected, stay engaged, keep rising together with us.