

RINGLING COLLEGE OF ART and DESIGN

ALFRED R. GOLDSTEIN LIBRARY

1228 Dr. Martin Luther King Way Sarasota, FL 34234

<https://www.ringling.edu/library/>

941-359-7587

INFORMATION FOR ALUMNI

Graduates of Ringling College have lifetime borrowing privileges at the Alfred R. Goldstein Library.

Register at the Service Desk for a library card. A photo ID is required for registration. Check out the online guide to Alumni Resources: <https://ringling.libguides.com/visitors>

Library Collection Highlights

65,000+ print titles, 10,000+DVDs/videos, and over 150 current print periodical subscriptions. To search the collections, connect to the Library website: www.ringling.edu/library

HOURS

Alumni may access the Library between 8:30am – 4:30pm most weekdays throughout the year, or by special appointment.

Any closures related to holidays or breaks will be posted.

Borrowing Privileges

Alumni may have up to 15 items checked out at any one time.

Loan periods:

- Books: 21-day loan
- DVDs: 3-day loan
- Bound Periodicals/Annals: 5-day loan
- Current Periodicals: 1-day loan

Items may be renewed online via the “My Account” link at www.ringling.edu/library or by phone at 941-359-7587.

Brizdle-Schoenberg Special Collections Center

The hours for the Brizdle-Schoenberg Special Collections Center are typically from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, Monday through Friday. These hours are subject to change, so visitors are encouraged to first check the Special Collections page at: <https://ringling.libguides.com/specialcollections>.

Materials in Special Collections may be viewed by appointment only, and are available to students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the general public.

Contact Cheri Marks, Special Collections Curator and Archivist, at cmarks@ringling.edu or at (941) 359-7583 for general inquiries, individual research consultations, and class visits, or visit calendly.com/Goldstein-library to schedule an appointment.

Please note: Due to licensing agreements and Ringling IT protections, Library computers and licensed electronic resources are not available for use by Alumni.