

Campus Hazing Transparency Report

The Campus Hazing Transparency Report includes all violations of the policy regarding Hazing as required by the Stop Campus Hazing Act. The report is designed to help students make informed decisions about joining a recognized student organization at Ringling College of Art and Design or participating in recognized student organization's activities.

Jan. 1, 2025-Dec. 31, 2025

During the 2025 calendar year, there were no recognized student organizations found responsible for hazing incidents reported during these dates.

Jan. 1, 2024-Dec. 31, 2024

During the 2024 calendar year, there were no recognized student organizations found responsible for hazing incidents reported during these dates.

Jan. 1, 2023-Dec. 31, 2023

During the 2023 calendar year, there were no recognized student organizations found responsible for hazing incidents reported during these dates.

Jan. 1, 2022-Dec. 31, 2022

During the 2022 calendar year, there were no recognized student organizations found responsible for hazing incidents reported during these dates.

Jan. 1, 2021-Dec. 31, 2021

During the 2021 calendar year, there were no recognized student organizations found responsible for hazing incidents reported during these dates.

Anti-Hazing Policy:

Ringling College of Art and Design Anti-Hazing Policy can be found, here:

<https://studenthandbook.ringling.edu/antihazing-policy>.

Reporting:

- There are numerous ways you can report hazing:
 - Online reporting form:
https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?RinglingCollege&layout_id=0 .
 - Anonymous reporting option to Public Safety.
 - Direct contact with Dean of Students, Title IX Coordinator, or Public Safety.