

Student Learning Center

Providing creative, individualized support.

Ringling College of Art + Design

Here's a sneak peek →

The Student Learning Center's academic support services are available for all students at Ringling College free of charge. The SLC welcomes students looking for help in areas such as writing, reading, and studying. Additionally, we support those looking to develop skills to help in their daily lives such as organization, time management, and conversational English. Students' academic goals vary, so appointments are individualized to meet your needs. We're here to help.

"I used the services of the SLC for all four years at Ringling College. With their help and support, I was able to graduate and land my dream job at Feld Entertainment Studios."

– Selina Bostic '20, Graphic Design

Services Offered by Learning Specialists

Our Learning Specialists are here to work with you individually (free of charge!) in any/all of the areas below:

Time Management/Goal Setting: Learn to prioritize your schedule and make the most effective use of your time to ensure you can study, socialize, eat, sleep, and create in a healthy way. Come in and make a plan for the whole semester or a shorter plan for upcoming deadlines.

Writing: Work on writing assignments from any class and get support for all phases of the writing process. We help with art history comparative analysis, liberal arts research papers, senior thesis projects, creative writing, film scripts, and more. Learn to write academic papers correctly in order to avoid plagiarism.

Studying: Whether it's a weekly quiz or a midterm exam, Learning Specialists can share proven study tools, tips, and memory devices. We focus on your area of need to help make study time more effective.

Presentations: Projects and presentations are a fundamental part of Ringling College's curriculum and our Learning Specialists can help turn your research into an impactful presentation. Most importantly, we can help you develop strategies for dealing with nerves and anxiety during public speaking.

Reading: Improve your reading comprehension by working to develop active reading strategies and avoiding re-reading. No more wasting time. Whether it's a textbook or pdf, we can help you be a more effective reader.

We help with:

Developing time management plans

Studying for quizzes and exams

Improving conversational English

Learning software basics

Working on Art History papers or projects

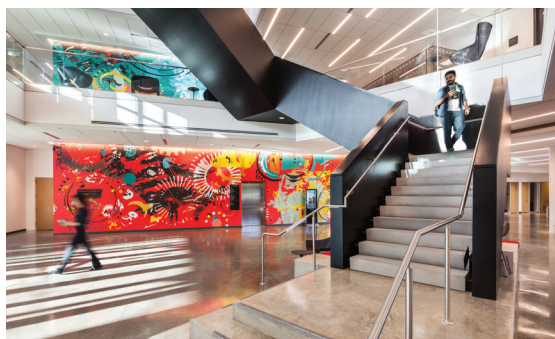

Writing artist statements

Understanding steps of an art analysis

Avoiding plagiarism

Practice presentations

And so much more...

Services Offered by Student Tutors

In the evenings, our Student Tutors are here to help.

Writing: Work on papers for any class and get help with all phases of the writing process including brainstorming, research, organization, internal citations, and bibliographies.

Conversational English: Using current topics of interest as well as art vocabulary and terminology, the SLC Tutors will help you practice speaking and listening in a casual, comfortable environment.

Basic Software: Work with experienced students to develop the basic computer skills needed to be more successful working with the software programs required in your first-year courses.

Learn More

Questions? Email: slc@ringling.edu

Schedule appointments through Student Links on the Campus Portal (Student Learning Center – Make Appointments).

Follow us on Instagram @RinglingCollegeSLC for updates, study strategies, time management tips, and so much more!

Student Learning Center (SLC)

Alfred R. Goldstein Library, Second Floor, Room 210
slc@ringling.edu
www.ringling.edu/slc

2700 N. Tamiami Trail
Sarasota, FL 34234
941-351-5100
www.ringling.edu